

Ski In Style

11 December 2013

Whether you're looking for a quiet break with your partner, a week of serious skiing and hard après ski partying, or a family holiday, we've got the pick of the most dazzling chalets, the coolest new luxe hotels, plus a few hidden gems off the beaten track...

10. Chalet La Marquise, Sainte Foy, France

The Lowdown: Little-known Sainte Foy may not be for the Prada-clad skier looking for glitzy shops, Michelin-starred restaurants and a buzzing nightlife. But for the serious skier, it's a great resort as it is located close to some of the massive resorts like Val d'Isère, Tignes and Les Arcs, all less than 30 minutes' drive away, as well as having some lovely uncrowded slopes in the resort itself. La Marquise is a stunning chalet, which accommodates a big group of 16, or rooms can be booked individually. It features fab designer pieces like white leather sofas, hanging seats out on the balcony and a dramatic suspended fireplace in the centre of the living area. It also has a fully equipped Elemis wellness centre including sauna, hammam, massage and treatment room, and a balcony hot tub with knock-out views.

The Details: Sleeps 16 – one week from £905 per person fully catered.
